

Drawing Near in Unity

Aaron Sironi

- I. Jesus' high priestly prayer: he was praying by name for you (John 17:20-23).

Psalm 133

A song of the Great Ascent. David's.

¹Behold! How good and how delightful—
when God's people dwell in unity!

²It's like oil—the best—on the head,
going down on the beard—Aaron's beard—
going down on the opening of his robe.

³It's like the dew of Hermon going down
on the mountains of Zion.

⁴Because there Yahweh commanded the blessing, life forever.

- II. Unity is hard won in real relationships (Ps 133:1).
- III. Cultivating and cherishing unity is not just one virtue among several options; it's at the very center of our calling (Ps 133:2).
- IV. The heart and “engine room” of unity (Ps 133:3).
- V. Unlocking the treasure chest of unity (Ps 133:4).
